Join us in celebrating Wales Week in London

Wales Week in London is an annual series of activities and events that celebrate and promote everything that's great about Wales.

“Ours is a vibrant country with so much to offer – historically, culturally and of course through our diverse range of businesses, and Wales Week in London is a co-ordinated promotion of all that we have to shout about. This annual festival showcases a series of activities that celebrate and promote existing Welsh communities in London, providing an exciting opportunity to raise our profile and create a real buzz.”

Ken Skates AM, Cabinet Secretary for Economy & Transport, Welsh Government

“As a founding partner, UK Government is delighted to support the record number of events taking place around St David's Day. Wales Week in London 2018 offers a fantastic opportunity to promote the best that Wales has to offer to a global audience - it will be a great success.”

Rt Hon Alun Cairns MP, Secretary of State for Wales
